Deaconess Pharmacy Presents: Pharmacy Forecast Student Workshop

Calling all future pharmacy clinicians and leaders! This interactive session will expose you to emerging healthcare trends and enhance your understanding of the opportunities within pharmacy practice. The topics covered may serve as potential topics for journal clubs, rotational presentations, and interview questions with potential employers (i.e., internship, residency).

Objectives:
- Describe healthcare imperative changes and impact on pharmacy practice.
- Review the Pharmacy Forecast and its role in strategic planning.
- Discuss the role of the Pharmacy Forecast in student professional development.

It is recommended that students review the 8 main domains to prepare for discussion during the workshop. Materials can be found at: http://www.ashpfoundation.org/PharmacyForecast2016

Presenters

Carrie Morton, PharmD, MBA
Director of Pharmacy
Deaconess Health System

Dr. Morton has been the Director at Deaconess Health System for the past 3 years overseeing all pharmacy services for the health system including 4 hospitals, 4 infusion centers, a behavioral health facility, an accountable care organization, 2 own use pharmacies, and a 200+ multi-specialty physician clinic. Dr. Morton has been involved with ASHP for more than 10 years and is currently serving as the Chair of the Innovation Management Section Advisory Group where this workshop was developed. Dr. Morton is also on the Board of Directors for the Indiana Society of Health System Pharmacists (ISHP), a part of the Indiana Pharmacist Alliance (IPA). Dr. Morton is passionate about strategic planning and is excited to share expertise on what the future of the pharmacy profession holds at this workshop.

Tyler Scott, PharmD
Operations Lead Pharmacist
Deaconess Health System

Dr. Scott began working for Deaconess as a pharmacy intern in 2010. After graduating from Butler University in 2012, he stayed on at Deaconess as a clinical pharmacist. In 2014, he became the Lead Operations Pharmacist for the Main Campus, and now holds the same title at the Gateway Campus. Dr. Scott is the IPPE preceptor and the Pharmacy Student Intern Program Coordinator. Dr. Scott is also involved in a regional coalition with the Indiana Pharmacists Alliance and is working toward his Masters of Business Administration.
